

Leading in a Volunteering Environment

An ILM Development Programme designed and delivered by Attend Academy

Leadership styles and principles

One-day workshop 09.45 – 16.00

Aim of the Session:

This session is designed to develop the leadership skills of participants, who take a lead on developing projects and motivating other volunteers to contribute to them.

Learning Objectives

To develop participants':

- Awareness of principles of leadership
- Understanding of different leadership styles and their own preferred style
- Ability to adapt a style of leadership that fits their own situations

This session will allow delegates to consider the principles of leadership and the range of styles applicable in certain situations. It will also give them the opportunity to review their own approach to motivating other volunteers as they seek to ensure success for the aspects of volunteering projects they are responsible for.
